

Evidence of Flaws in FAA Policing

By JAMES R. POLK and DICK BARNES
Associated Press Writers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 30-death disaster on a Wichita State University football flight has uncovered blind spots in the way the Federal Aviation Administration acts as watchdog over the rent-a-plane business.

The FAA lifted the license Thursday of the firm piloting the Wichita State plane. It also slapped a $50,000 fine on a second firm which owned the craft and grounded all its other planes for emergency inspections.

In a news conference, the FAA pleaded ignorance of the safety problems until after the hired plane had smashed into a steep mountainside in a dead-end canyon in the Rockies a week ago today.

Yet the FAA had warned two schools—including Wichita State—against football flights by the small air firm two months ago. The agency said it assumed the rental plans were scrapped, and it took no action to stop the firm itself.

On an emergency basis, the FAA revoked the flying license Thursday of that firm, Golden Eagle Aviation Inc. of Oklahoma City, after ruling it had no certificate to operate a passenger plane as large as the ill-fated Martin 404.

The FAA cited 16 safety defects on a second plane also used for the football trip to Utah State in handing the $50,000 penalty to Jack Richards Aircraft Co. Inc., also of Oklahoma City.

OPERATION DRUG ALERT

The first session—"Drugs in Perspective" was held at the court house Tuesday October 6, 1970. The second session, "Frequently Abused Drugs" will be held Tuesday October 13th, at 7:30 p.m. The third session, "Our Response To The Drug Abuse Problem" will be held October 20th, at 7:30 p.m.

You may wonder why I am announcing these meetings. You shouldn't, though, because every time we turn on our radios, or television, or yes, even go to the movies, what do we see? Young people, and yes, adults too, being treated in some hospital for drug addiction. The sad thing about T.V., it plays the "trip" up as being "out of this world", and what do we do? We visualize ourselves as going on a trip and forgetting all our problems. But, why can't we stay with it until we see what it does to our brains, our bodies, our lives? We say that we do things because we don't know any better; we don't have the opportunity to learn about certain things. Come now, let's be honest. The reason we don't know about a lot of things is because we don't take the time to avail ourselves of the opportunities that are given us. Then when it is presented to us, we say, "I didn't know anything about that!"

Let us busy ourselves and inform "us" of the meeting that will be held Tuesday night October 13th, at 7:30.

Three Killed in Rail Accident

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Three Reading Railroad crewmen were killed and a brakeman was seriously hurt today when a freight train crashed into the rear of a stopped freight at a track crossing.

Another railroad accident occurred Thursday night when a Penn Central passenger train slammed into the derailed caboose of a freight in Old Lyme, Conn. injuring one passenger and four railroad employees.

A Reading Railroad spokesman said in Philadelphia that an unscheduled freight rammed into the rear of a regularly scheduled one in the darkness of early morning.

The engineer of the moving train and engineer's helper along with a flagman on the halted train were killed. A brakeman on the unscheduled train was injured seriously.

Twenty cars, including seven engines, derailed and tore down large sections of wire from overhead power lines.

SS-Welfare Plan Fails in First Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration's controversial family assistance welfare plan, called by the President his No. 1 domestic proposal of this Congress, has failed its first bid to win Senate approval.

The Senate Finance Committee voted Thursday to reject the House version of the plan but agreed to add a limited experimental version to a Social Security bill now under consideration.

Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., said the actual form of the pilot version would be worked out by the committee's staff and considered Tuesday.

Welfare Secretary Elliot L. Richardson said the administration would fight in the Senate for a full program if the committee approves a bill providing only for a pilot program.

Richardson said he believed most senators are ready to reform the current welfare program. Other administration officials have predicted 60 Senate votes if the proposal makes the floor.

The committee's rejection, by a 14-1 vote, was expected. Most members had indicated strong opposition to the plan. Others reportedly were unhappy with the House version and favored a more liberal proposal.

Dellums Fails to Answer Agnew Charge

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Ronald V. Dellums, 35-year-old Democratic congressional candidate attacked by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, says, "Peace and humanity—that is my politics."

Dellums, a Berkeley city councilman, was termed "an enthusiastic supporter of the Black Panther party" by Agnew in a speech at Fort Smith, Ark., Thursday and described as "a man who says, 'My politics are to bring the walls down'."

Dellums commented: "If it is radical to want a living wage, a decent home and adequate health care for every American then I am a radical." Dellums has given no direct answer as to whether he supports the Black Panther party, and a Panther spokesman responded "no comment" when asked the same question.

crats as Sens. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Harold E. Hughes of Iowa, Birch Bayh of Indiana, Fred R. Harris of Oklahoma, Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota, Alan Cranston of California and George S. McGovern of South Dakota joined in a fund-raising affair for Dellums. Dellums won the nomination in the Democratic primary over a white long-time liberal, Rep. Jeffery Cohelan.

"It is time that good Democrats—by the millions—got out the big broom and the No. 9 shovel and started cleaning house," Agnew said.

He described as the great issue of the 1970 campaign, in which he is working for Republican congressional and gubernatorial candidates, "whether the policy of the United States is going to be dictated by a little clique of radical liberals in the Senate and House—or whether America's destiny will be determined by moderates, centrists and conservatives of both parties standing behind the President of the United States."

At the Fort Smith rally, which was televised within the state, Agnew spoke in support of the re-election campaigns of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and Rep. John Hammerschmidt, the only Republican in the state's congressional delegation.

Earlier Thursday in New Orleans, Agnew said in a television interview: "The information I have indicates without question that the leadership of the Black Panthers is dedicated to a violent course of action and an unlawful concept of the conduct of their affairs. While they do some good things, unless they change their objectives and abandon their exhortation to 'kill the pig,' which is the way they refer to police I suppose we have to condemn them in a blanket fashion."

Agnew carries his campaigning to Tulsa, Okla., today, before going to Phoenix, Ariz., and then to Palm Springs, Calif., for a weekend rest. He will make appearances in Texas next week.

ary has bread, he's got to give it away."

Hoffman's two books—"Woodstock Nation" and "Revolution for the Hell of It"—both of which advocates his goal "to create chaos in the ruling class," have grossed him some $75,000. After contract fees, publishing costs and miscellaneous expenses, he claims his actual earnings have been divided up as follows: $25,000 for Black Panther defense funds, $10,000 for bail money for other revolutionaries, several times $10,000 for Chicago trial expenses.

Hoffman and Rubin also say they are committed to giving at least $5,000 a month to the Youth International Party—"Yippies—for assorted 'projects.'"

Asked about the use of Establishment channels to further their cause, Hoffman quoted Lenin: "When capitalism hangs itself, it will be the bourgeoisie who sell the rope."

However, in an effort to eliminate such "straight" institutions, Hoffman and others formed their own speakers' bureau, offering such luminaries as themselves, lawyer William Kunstler, women's movement activists Shulamith Firestone and Jo Freeman, and rock writer Richard Goldstein.

"It's absurd to book through the going lecture bureaus and let them rip off 25-30 per cent of radical speakers," says Robert Lamb, office manager of The Movement Speakers' Bureau in New York. He said that with Move-Speak—as it is known—the speaker would get 75 per cent, the bureau, 25. And all profits beyond office costs would be voted back into everyone's favorite Movement cause.

In the past, radical speakers have commanded fees up to $2,000 an appearance.

A handful of other Movement leaders share financial success in publishing. Panther author Eldridge Cleaver's book, "Soul on Ice," has sold some 120,000 hardbound copies—at $5.95—and nearly 2 million in paperback. And that doesn't count the 100,000 copies of his "Writings" for another publisher.

While California lawyers for Cleaver, now living abroad, would not disclose the amount of money he has earned, his New York literary agent, Cyril Abels, said, "It's not as much as people expect because an awful lot is drained off by lawyers and debts."

Another Black Panther leader, Bobby Seale, has racked up some 22,000 sales of his writings at $6.95.

The newest Movement issue, women's liberation, has begun to be a money-earner also. Kate Millet's "Sexual Politics," a blast at male domination, has sold 60,000 copies at $7.95 after only 10 weeks in print.

"I plan to give all my money away," she says. Robin Morgan, whose anthology of women's liberation writings entitled "Sisterhood is Powerful," has just been published, says she plans to donate all profits to the Movement.

"I'll be up to the women—32 54 of them—who contributed to the book," she said.

Four small airplanes were damaged at the Texarkana Municipal Airport, where winds were clocked at 72 miles per hour.

The funnels at DeWitt, Jacksonville and McCrory were reported aloft, and little damage was recorded.

At Norman, which is between Mount Ida and Glenwood, some buildings were damaged, trees were felled and the mobile home of Sheriff's Deputy Duane Cox was overturned.

The weather bureau said that the last of the showers will move out of the state tonight as the front pushes eastward.

Low temperatures tonight will be in the mid 30s northwest to the upper 40s in the southeast. High Saturday will be in the mid 60s to mid 70s.

PROOF SOVIETS (from page one)

tion of Britain's ruling Conservative party in Blackpool, England, said today that Foreign Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home plans a new backstage bid to revive the Big Four discussions for Middle East peace guidelines.

They said that in private discussions next week at the U.N. General Assembly in New York and later in the month with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in London, he hopes to convince Big Four officials that Britain may be in a good position to find a way out of the impasse between Washington and Moscow.

The United States withdrew earlier this week from talks the Big Four's deputy representatives at the United Nations have been holding. The U.S. representative pulled out in an attempt to pressure the Russians and the Egyptians into pulling the missiles back from the canal, but so far there has been no indication that the move would be successful.

Bolivia Has Caused U.S. Some Concern

By GEORGE GEDDA
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some U.S. officials are expressing concern over the latest upheaval in Bolivia, combined with an anti-American drift in Chile and Peru, could create a "Middle East-type situation" the Soviet Union might find inviting.

According to this view, declining U.S. influence could open the way for a show of Soviet power along South America's Pacific coast—similar to the Soviet military initiatives in Arab countries after the six-day war in 1967.

There is no broad consensus among U.S. officials as to implications of the "popular unity" coalition which took power in Bolivia Wednesday under leadership of Gen. Juan Jose Torres.

There are no firm indications Torres will direct Bolivia on an anti-American course. However, officials here consider it significant that rhetoric commonly identified with Communist nations has been very much in evidence in La Paz since he swept to power.

The Soviet Union has yet to show any evidence of military movement in South America, having concentrated mostly on establishing diplomatic and trade links with nations of the area. Five Latin nations have established diplomatic ties with the Kremlin over the past two years, leaving Paraguay the lone holdout in South America.

But some officials do not rule out the possibility of increasing Soviet interest in the region. "Power abhors a vacuum," said one official, "and our capacity to influence events down there is not what it used to be. It is not inconceivable that our place could be taken by someone else."

Fears are also being expressed over the future of the Organization of American States and the Inter-American Defense Board. Sources acquainted with hemispheric affairs say it would not take too many hostile voices within these organizations to disrupt the relative harmony with which they have functioned in recent years.

The recent events in Bolivia came on the heels of the election in Chile of Salvador Allende, an outspoken admirer of Fidel Castro who has promised to put his nation on the road to socialism. There is every indication here that the Chilean Congress will ratify Allende's election when it meets Oct. 24.

It was two years ago that Peru nationalized properties belonging to the International Petroleum Corp., and the two nations are as far apart as ever on the issue of compensation.

Of added concern to officials here is the recent evidence provided by U-2 flights over Cuba that the Soviet Union may be establishing a strategic submarine base at Cienfuegos.

SENATE CRACKS (from page one)

law and order is a prime issue. The package now goes to the House.

First off, the Senate passed 68 to 0 a bill broadening and strengthening federal laws against bombings and permitting the death penalty in cases causing fatal injuries. It authorizes use of wiretapping under court order when criminal use of explosives is suspected.

An amendment by Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., to strike out the death penalty was rejected 46 to 22.

The bill makes it a federal crime to damage or destroy with explosives any federal property or the property of any institution receiving federal funds. This opens the way for the FBI to investigate bombing on virtually any college campus.

Another bill passed by voice vote is designed to provide increased protection for the president when he is away from Washington.

Its effect is to permit the secret Service to cordon off areas for the president's protection, without having to rely on state or local trespass laws.

Also passed by voice vote was a bill making it a federal offense to assassinate, kidnap or assault a member of Congress or a congressman-elect.

Still another bill passed by the senate permits the government to appeal federal district court rulings dismissing criminal prosecutions when there has been no verdict of acquittal. It also permits appeal of rulings that suppress evidence before trial.

These separate bills were added to still another measure authorizing a vastly increased program of federal grants to assist state and local governments in improving their police forces, courts and correctional systems.

Private Eye Says ABC Deal Covered Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Larry Case, 24, of Little Rock, a private detective, said Thursday he was hired to buy hashish from an agent of the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Department.

Case said that the matter had been "covered up" and that Earl M. Thomas, who resigned last week as chief of enforcement for the department, had been made a scapegoat for others in the ABC.

Prosecutor Richard B. Addison questioned Case, Thomas and ABC Director Joe B. Gaspard Thursday and said other persons would be questioned. He said he had issued no warrants.

Thomas said Thursday that his resignation had nothing to do with hashish. He said he resigned because of allegations that were false but which he could not disprove.

His resignation came after it was learned that the State Police were conducting an investigation in connection with the department.

State Police Director Ralph Scott, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, Rockefeller aides and Gaspard have declined to reveal details of the investigation.

Thomas said he had been instructed to check out whether or not an ABC agent was "pushing narcotics," and that Case was one of at least two persons hired to assist him.

Gaspard was aware of Case's role in the case, Thomas said.

Case said that in a Little Rock motel on a recent Sunday an ABC agent had sold hashish to him. No money changed hands, but Thomas stepped into the room in time to witness the transaction, Case said. He declined to name the agent.

He said he asked the ABC about two weeks ago for $500 he was to be paid for the investigation, but payment was refused. Case said he soon reported the matter to Little Rock police and State Police officials.

Case said Marion Burton, campaign director for Rockefeller, was aware of the investigation and the result, but "they had no plans to prosecute at the time." Burton couldn't be reached for comment.

Texas Tech Defeats Hog Freshmen

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Texas Tech's Picadors, pushing their football record to 2-0, gathered 507 yards total offense and crushed the Arkansas Shoats 24-6 here Thursday night.

Joe Barnes, who scored twice for Tech, amassed 156 yards on 15 carries and James Mosely netted 127 on 21 carries. The Shoats had only 175 yards total offense.

Barnes went 70 yards for one of his two touchdowns. John Garner got Tech's other TD on a five-yard run and Don Grimes accounted for the Picadors' other points with a 25-yard field goal.

Dicky Morton went 13 yards for an Arkansas touchdown in the third period after the Shoats trailed 10-0 at halftime.

Arkansas' record dropped to 1-1.

'His Land' to Be Shown at Unity Baptist

Across a barren land, scarred by centuries of war and neglect, the spectres of ancient Israel appear, hover, and fade away. Suddenly there is movement of a different sort, and slowly, steadily, a startling transformation begins to take place.

Thus begins "HIS LAND," the thrilling story of Israel from ancient to modern times. "HIS LAND," a one-hour color feature motion picture, takes you on a journey through space, time and current events. You see graphically, the fact that Israel today is a living testimony to the words of the prophets when they proclaimed that Israel would take her place among the nations of the world.

In the company of Cliff Barrows and Cliff Richard, England's popular star, who sings a number of new Ralph Carmichael songs, some of which were actually written on location, you travel the vibrant streets and lonely solitary paths of this nation whose destiny is daily discussed in the counsels of governments all over the world. . . the same paths taken by Jesus and the prophets: Galilee . . . the wilderness . . . Jerusalem . . . the Mount of Olives. . . mingle with the people of modern Israel as they work, play and build a nation.

Words of Scripture come to life as the two men reflect upon the events that in recent years have confirmed much of the ancient prophecies. You are witness to the fact that out of death and desolation is emerging a new Land. . . a "Land of milk and honey," where the future climatic events of history will take place.

"HIS LAND," rich in color and authentic sights and sounds, with a popular musical score composed and arranged by Ralph Carmichael has been called a musical journey into the soul of a nation, and will be shown on October 12 at 7:30 Unity Baptist Church.

Tuesday of each month from 7 to 9 p.m. Members were asked to bring Christmas Ideas to the next meeting, November 17, and to try to get prospective members to come also. Home-made biscuits and sorghum syrup are promised for refreshments, so a good crowd is expected.

The eight members at the October meeting were served sandwiches, dessert and coffee.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. TIMMIE G. MAROON

Miss Nancy Carol Glass became the bride of Timmie Glen Maroon in a double ring ceremony on August 11, at Southside Baptist Church near Hope with Rev. Johnny Teague officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glass of Rt. 2, Emmet. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson of Hope.

The vows were repeated before an altar of 29 candles flanked on either side by white gladioli and polished greenery. Entering the church on the arm of her father the bride wore a floor length dress of white peau de soie with white chantilly lace in a princess style with lace bell sleeves and elbow length veil of white net trimmed with white flowers.

The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweetheart roses over a white Bible. Miss Pam Keeter was bridesmaid. She wore a blue dress of organy and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Cindy Glass, sister of the bride and Penny Teague, niece of the groom were flower girls and wore matching floor length blue dresses.

Dewayne Wilburn served as best man. David Satterwhite, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Jack Glass, brother of the bride and Randy Wayne Teague, nephew of the groom, lighted the candles. Ushers for the wedding were Joe Glass, brother of the bride, and James Hair. The traditional wedding march was played by Mrs. Jack Brown and "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Jack Ashworth.

For the wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of mint green crepe trimmed with green and white daisies with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The mother of the groom wore a pink dress of bonded crepe trimmed with pink and white daisies with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church reception room. The bride's table was covered with a white satin and applique net cloth trimmed with green ivy.

The four layer wedding cake was decorated with sugar spun blue and white roses and white swans with double wedding rings under an arch upon the top.

Yellow punch was served from a fountain punch bowl.

An arrangement of blue and white daisies in a mist of six candles centered the table.

Chocolate cake and coffee were served from the groom's table.

Those assisting at the tables were Mrs. Randy Teague, Mrs. Johnny Teague and Mrs. Ben Davis. The brides book was open for guests to sign. Rice bags were passed out by Penny Glass.

The couple will make their home in Hope, after a short honeymoon to Dallas, Texas.

NEW YORK (AP) — "Helen Hayes: Portrait of an American Actress," the opening program of this season's "NET Playhouse" on the public broadcasting stations, was a valiant effort to encapsulate a 65-year-long career on the stage in 90 minutes.

Miss Hayes was subject, hostess, star and narrator—a responsibility that caused occasional awkwardness. The program was done almost entirely in the first person, with frequent and very necessary excursions into her private life.

Miss Hayes started at the beginning—growing up in Washington, D.C., and told how she became a Broadway star at 20.

"How can I explain to young, ambitious performers that they must plan to be at the right place at the right time?"

There were still pictures from bygone stage productions, clips from old movies and lots of family photographs. Miss Hayes showed a young actress how to "filter" and speak in the piping voice required of ingenues 50 years ago. There were scenes from two plays in which she played queens—Mary Stuart and Victoria, and bits from other favorite plays.

There was some good theater talk—reminders with Marc Connelly, George Abbott and Armina Marshall, although one suspects these conversations were edited down.

The actress was at her best talking about the techniques and disciplines of acting. She was engaging and amusing when recalling some of the great stars with whom she has associated.

Most of the program was filmed inside the Hayes Nyack home, "Pretty Penny" as her late husband Charles MacArthur named it, and in the gardens overlooking the Hudson River.

It concluded in an empty theater, with Miss Hayes reflecting that for her the stage has "offered form and meaning as life never has."

It was an ambitious undertaking, affectionately produced. If it was occasionally a bit stagy and theatrical—well, after all, it was a portrait of an actress.

A flip of the wrist to NBC's "Dean Martin Show" produced a viewer reaction that was perhaps a little more violent than it would have been if one had not been moving from Miss Hayes' kind of show business.

There's nothing really wrong with the Martin hour. It is easy and pleasant and probably harmless. Martin has some new surroundings this season but neither he or the rest of the show seems to have changed much. Neither have the jokes, alas.

Marty Feldman, a British comedian who was the hit of Martin's summer replacement program, was brought on for an encore. He has such silly, tasteless material that his sonny boy sketch was a disaster. The good moments of the Martin hour are usually in the musical area.

Man is made great or little by his own will.—Johann Schiller, German poet and dramatist.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

DO VISITING PRIVILEGES EXTEND TO WIFE?

Dear Helen:

I'm in my 40s, and about to be married to a man who is very close to his three children. These teen-agers do not especially care for me, although I had nothing to do with the divorce, which was final last May.

My future husband insists they will probably never accept me, and therefore he won't ask them to visit us — BUT he plans to visit them in his former wife's home. He will be spending several weekends with them each year, and may even take one week of his vacation there in Montana. Of course I won't go along.

Also, I am to have no part of his life which concerns the children. I won't attend their graduations, or weddings, send them birthday presents, etc. This is the plan.

Helen, should I enter marriage on this basis? It seems that there will always be conflict, if my husband fosters this "apartness." Isn't it up to the father to make his children realize that if they really love him, they'll accept his new wife? And should a divorced man be a houseguest in the home of his former wife — especially when his new wife remains 300 miles away? Isn't this carrying a "friendly divorce" too far? — DOUBTFUL Dear Doubtful:

I'd say all this is carrying a "friendly divorce" to the brink of re-marriage. Ask this man if he is sure he has cosen the right woman. It's better to know now than after the wedding. — H. Dear Helen:

Here's another retort for "Wanting a Comeback" whose "divinity fudge" church members insisted on an all white congregation. After being snubbed out of a similar WASP church, a black man took his troubles to God, who answered, "Not to worry, son. I've been trying to get into that church for many years, and they won't let ME in either!" — V.P.

Dear Helen:

So many write to tell you they're fed up with "people today," that I thought you'd like to hear about some really wonderful folks for a change.

Our suburban development provides little space for children to play — especially as they grow older. Realizing this, the owners of a nearby 12-acre farm have turned their place into a haven for neighborhood youngsters, even though their own son is grown and gone.

On the farm there are sheep, goats, rabbits, chickens, ducks, dogs, cats and goldfish to play with and study. In the barn is a workshop and playroom where children are always welcome provided they aren't destructive. Trails through their woods and meadows provide safe, legal places to ride mini-bikes, and drive "doodle-bugs" or dune buggies.

Children who have horses may keep them in the pasture. In the summer, children pitch tents or bring their sleeping bags along, have weiner bakes and roast marshmallows. Needless to say, these kind neighbors are included in the fun — no generation gap here!

At a time when everyone is concerned about the younger generation going to pot (quite literally), these folks are doing something about the problem. Under their guidance, our children are learning to love and protect animals, to get along with one another regardless of age, to respect other's property, and to find worthwhile outlets for their excess energy. You see, to do otherwise, would lead to banishment from this wonderful place.

Thank God for people like Mr. and Mrs. P. — DOROTHY Dear Dorothy:

....And thanks for telling us about these extra-special people! — H.

Bobkittens Shut Out Camden 8-0

BILL MOORE
Star SportsWriter

Thursday night in Hammons Stadium the Hope Bobkittens shutout the Camden Panthers, 8-0, before a small crowd, for the first victory of the season.

Previously the Bobkittens had lost the first three games by very close scores in the final minutes of play. This game, however, saw the Hope team stand up against bad weather, a slippery football, and a tough Camden team, and defeated them all to raise their record to 1-3, with an opening homeland victory.

Hope kicked off after losing the coin toss, but three plays later had the ball, after James Robinson intercepted a Panther pass at the Hope 43 yard line. On a fourth down the Kittens were given another chance on a roughing the kicker penalty, but this time Camden intercepted.

Neither team mounted anything until the Kittens took possession at their own 41 with 6:40 remaining in the first half.

Combining a 25 yard pass from quarterback Gary Rhodes to fullback David Huddleston, with the running of Terry Smith, the Kittens moved to the Panther 20 yard line, before losing possession downs. Shortly afterwards the first half ended with no score for either side.

At that point it could have looked like the other three games, with a close battle until the last couple of minutes, but Hope decided to change that. Coming out the second half, the Kittens showed determination and pride, fighting to win.

Camden worked an outside kick and started from their own 47, to begin the third period. Two plays later an illegal receiver penalty nullified a 39 yard pass play to the Hope 7, which was eventually to be the deepest Panther penetration.

Exchanging possession the Kittens took possession of the ball with 1:58 left in the third period after the defense had shoved the Panthers back 19 yards.

Starting from the Camden 47, Hope gained 13 yards each on two identical passes from Rhodes to Huddleston, down to the enemy 18. Two plays later the drive was spoiled by an interception.

Moving the ball up to the 36, a Camden fumble was recovered by Hope and the Kittens began to move.

With 7:43 left Smith gained seven on a pass and then Tim Hogan took a beautiful jump pass from Rhodes for a 10 yard gain and a first down. Seven yards moved the ball to the ten.

Seconds later Smith scored the only points all night on an end run from 10 yards out after breaking four tackles. The two point conversion run by Huddleston was good and with the clock showing 6:37 remaining in the game, Hope had an 8-0 lead.

When the clock ran out, Camden had the ball on their own 6, after three passes failed to connect.

The Kittens used their defensive strength to ride to victory with the offense coming through for the only points needed in a well-deserved victory. Much credit must go to the defensive line and secondary, who pressured the quarterback and bottled up the receivers all night.

The next game is at home, against the Nashville Scrappers, in a game that looks to be exciting.

Broyles Can See Nothing Different

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Baylor, which opens its Southwest Conference season against Arkansas here Saturday night, has always been a headache for the Razorbacks and Coach Frank Broyles does not expect anything different this year.

Outside of Texas, Baylor is the league's most troublesome team to Arkansas, which holds only a 6-4-1 series edge since Broyles has been head coach.

Arkansas is coming off a peak 49-14 effort against TCU last Saturday and Broyles sees Baylor building up to its peak for the Bears' SWC opener.

Baylor lost to LSU 31-10 in its last outing, but Broyles said, "I've never seen anything like the way their defense rapped" against the Tigers.

"They (Baylor) have the enthusiasm of a national championship team on their defense," Broyles said. "When a man makes a play, everybody rushes up to pat him on the back and the bench jumps up and down. Their defense along is good enough to win a lot of games."

The Bears have a defensive standout in linebacker David Jones, a 6-foot, 4-inch, 215-pound linebacker.

"Jones sure hasn't let us down," says Baylor Coach Bill Beall.

Broyles rates Jones an "equal to any defensive player in the league."

The pass is not so prominent a weapon in the Baylor arsenal as it once was, partly because quarterback Laney Cook is adept as a runner.

The aerial still is there, though -- as LSU discovered when Cook teamed with split end Derek Davis on a 60-yard pass play for a touchdown against the Tigers.

The big rusher for Baylor is Matthews Williams, who streaked 65 yards on a kickoff return against LSU.

"Williams is our top gun," Beall said. "He can be one of the greats if he continues to improve. The sky is the limit for him."

The kickoff is at 7:30 p.m. CDT.

Stars Favor Baltimore's Jim Palmer

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

NEW YORK (AP) — The stars favor Baltimore's Jim Palmer over Cincinnati's Gary Nolan in the opening game of the World Series Saturday but line up behind the Reds for the long championship haul.

These were conclusions drawn from a visit with Astroflash, the blinking monster with a thousand eyes which combines the ancient art of astrology with the modern computer.

After probing Nolan's date and place of birth—May 27, 1948 in Herlong, Calif.—and studying the position of planets at that particular time, the computer predicts that the Reds' pitcher probably will be knocked out of the box.

"Your job is concerned," Nolan's 16-page horoscope says. "Criticism, rivalry and inability to finish things will exaggerate your aggressive tendencies. And you will be apt to throw yourself into struggles which often are not to your benefit."

A Gemini whose ascendant sign is Scorpio, Nolan is told that his strength lies in great passion augmented by psychic strength, but is warned:

"Just be careful that you don't wear the machine out."

It didn't say the Big Red Machine.

The computer, which spews out character analyses and predictions on a study of the stars, is kinder to Palmer, the Orioles' 20-game winner, a Libra born Oct. 15, 1945 in New York.

Described as a man of extreme sensitivity who is "amiable, relaxed and easy," the horoscope says Palmer will benefit from the presence of Mercury and Mars in the third house.

"In your horoscope, this planet represents your power to fulfill yourself, to flourish and expand, to succeed," it adds. "This applies equally to the realm of making money, acquiring social prestige, asserting your moral authority or winning in any other field."

Astroflash was asked also for data on the rival managers, Earl Weaver and Sparky Anderson.

Arkansas by 21 Over Baylor Bears

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Quick quiz.

What Southwest Conference team, besides Texas, has given Arkansas the most trouble during the past decade?

Answer — Baylor, which won less than 45 per cent of its conference games during the 1960s.

Arkansas, riding a three-game winning streak, and Baylor, with a 1-3 record, meet here Saturday night.

In the past 10 years, Arkansas has managed a 6-3-1 record against Baylor. Even when they won, the Razorbacks rarely had an easy time against the Bears.

Arkansas usually gives a peak effort against TCU and sometimes fails off the next week against Baylor. On the other hand, Arkansas is the conference opener for Baylor and the Bears give a top effort.

Last year, for example, Arkansas was on its way to a 9-1 season and Baylor was headed for 0-10. Yet, the score was 7-7 after three quarters at Waco.

Arkansas finally pulled out the victory 21-7.

Baylor opened its season with a 38-0 loss to Missouri, beat Army 10-7 and then lost to Pittsburgh and LSU.

The Razorbacks in their top performance of the season, blasted TCU 49-14 last week.

Defensive tackle Dick Bumpas and quarterback Bill Montgomery were named the conference's outstanding players of the week for their play.

The Razorbacks will go with Larry Kilgore, a sophomore at left defensive tackle, against Baylor. Roger Harnish and John Turner have been lost for the season with knee injuries and Coach Frank Broyles says Rick Kersey will be out of the next two games.

Arkansas, however, should have the manpower to get by Baylor.

ARKANSAS 28, BAYLOR 7
Arkansas State University opens its quest for a third straight Southland Conference title against Trinity University at Jonesboro Saturday.

The Indians had fumbled around the goal last week, but still whipped The Citadel 24-7.

If the fumble bug doesn't bite, ASU should have little trouble with Trinity.

ASU 35, TRINITY 14.

Southern State opened its conference season with a 25-14 victory over Harding last week and Saturday meets Henderson, the 1969 conference champion, at Arkadelphia.

Henderson dropped a 23-7 decision to Arkansas Tech last week.

Henderson has the home field, but Southern State has the momentum.

Southern State 17, Henderson 13.

Last week this forecaster hit on seven of seven selections.

Here are other predictions involving college teams in Arkansas:

Ouachita 14, Arkansas A&M 7
Arkansas AM&N 20, Southern University 17

Arkansas Tech 27, Florence, Ala., 10

Harding 14, Mississippi College 10

State College of Arkansas 27, Northwood Institute 21

son, and the hitting stars of the two teams Oriole first baseman Boog Powell and Red's receiver Johnny Bench.

"Luck will accompany you in your projects," the computer told Anderson, the Reds' pilot who is a Pisces.

To Weaver, the Orioles' skipper born under the sign of Leo, it said: "during these days (mid-October) the sun will be out of balance with the fifth house which rules your joys and pleasures."

The computer termed Bench "young in heart and mind" and said: "you can count on waiting to express yourself, to break all records."

World Series Play Opens Saturday

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
CINCINNATI (AP) — A conviction that "right makes might" appears to have taken hold in both camps as the Baltimore Orioles and Cincinnati Reds approach the final countdown for what promises to be an explosive World Series confrontation.

Managers Earl Weaver of the Orioles and Sparky Anderson of the Reds, each acutely aware of the other's right-hand hitting power, had second thoughts Thursday about their long-range pitching plans for the best of 7 series beginning Saturday at Riverfront Stadium.

Jim Palmer will start on the mound for the Orioles against Cincinnati's Gary Nolan in a first-game duel of smoke-throwing young right-handers.

But Weaver, who selected Palmer ahead of southpaw ace Mike Cuellar and Dave McNally to counter the Reds' 3-4-5 punch of right-hand swingers Tony Perez, Johnny Bench and Lee May, expressed some concern over the readiness of Cuellar as his starter in game 2.

And Anderson, who plans to go with right-hander Jim McGlothin Sunday, suggested he might bypass left-hander Jim Merritt, his biggest winner, in favor of Tony Cloninger when the Reds face McNally in game 3 at Baltimore next Tuesday.

McNally worked seven brisk innings as the American League champs breezed through an intra-squad game at home before preparing to depart for Cincinnati today. Weaver used Cuellar for the last two innings, then said he was convinced McNally was ready ... but not so certain about the Cuban screwball artist.

"Two innings might set Mike up for Sunday," Weaver said. "I'll just have to wait and see."

Cuellar and McNally each won 24 games and Palmer took 20 for the Orioles during the season. Cuellar, however, was the least effective and Palmer the sharpest, with a 12-strikeout spree, as the defending AL kings swept the pennant playoffs from Minnesota.

Anderson, meanwhile, explained he was leaning toward Cloninger because the recent elbow troubles of 20-game winner Merritt ... as a concession to the Orioles' right-hand hitters.

"Merritt's elbow is still sore," the skipper said as the Reds worked out on their astroturf diamond. "And anyway, with the lineup Baltimore puts on the field, it's not much of an advantage going with a left-hand pitcher."

Big Boog Powell, who hits from the left side, is the Orioles' top run maker. But right-hand hitting Frank Robinson, Brooks Robinson, Merv Rettenmund, Dave Johnson and Paul Blair all are formidable threats.

Cloninger, a 10-year National League veteran who once hit two grand slam homers in a single game, failed to finish any of his 18 starts for the Reds. But he did a good job filling the gaps when injuries sidelined rookie star Wayne Simpson, McGlothin and Merritt. He finished with a 9-7 mark.

Spring Hill and Perry's Post Wins

The Hempstead Men's Independent Basketball Assn. opened the season at the Guernsey Gym Wednesday night with two very good games.

In the first game Blevins downed the Spring Hill squad 61 to 56 in a hard fought contest. Hicks led the winners with 15 and Bonds had 14. High man for Spring Hill was Sootes with 22, while Polk hit for 13.

In the second game Montys Barbers were overpowered by Perrys Truck Stop 84 to 75. Loe and Henley led Perrys with 28 each. Hatfield socked 18 for the losers.

The next games will be Perrys against Spring Hill and Montys will take on Blevins Wednesday, October 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Nicklaus Now Favored at Piccadilly

VIRGINIA WATER, England (AP) — Jack Nicklaus, American holder of the British Open title and winner of all the big ones in golf, said today: "Well, this should be quite a go-around against Tony."

The 28-year-old Columbus, Ohio, professional was referring to his semifinal match today against Tony Jacklin, British holder of the U.S. Open title, in the Piccadilly World Match Play Championship at Wentworth.

The last time the two met was in the Ryder Cup at Birkdale last year, when Jacklin sank an incredible 50-footer to square the match at the 17th.

Nicklaus, in one of the most sporting gestures in professional golf, conceded that putt and the match ended all square—and so did the series between Britain and the United States.

In the other semifinal today, Dave Stockton, 28-year-old United States PGA champion, was paired against Lee Trevino, former U.S. Open champion. Both matches were over 36 holes in this tournament, which is one of the last big match play affairs in the world.

Stockton defeated defending champion Bob Charles of New Zealand 2 and 1 Thursday.

Trevino survived a late charge by Billy Casper, the U.S. Masters champion, to win one up.

Jacklin defeated South African Gary Player, two up.

Nicklaus knocked out Gene Littler, another former U.S. Open champion, 5 and 4.

Nicklaus, talking about his game, said: "I think I've got my putting better at the moment, because the greens are getting faster. As they get faster so my putting gets better."

British bookies revised their betting odds and made Nicklaus a 6 to 4 favorite with Stockton and Trevino at 3 to 1 and Jacklin at 7 to 2. Betting is legal in Britain.

Speculation Sweeps World of Baseball

CINCINNATI (AP) — Speculation concerning a press conference by Commissioner Bowie Kuhn swept baseball circles today on the eve of the opening of the World Series between Baltimore and Cincinnati.

The unexpected conference, set for late afternoon at World Series press headquarters, was announced abruptly in New York Thursday night close to midnight.

Joe Reichler, aide to the commissioner, made the announcement before leaving for Cincinnati. He termed it a "very important press conference."

It was the emphasis on the words "very important" that led to the speculation about what the commissioner would announce.

"You can speculate all you want, but I am bound not to say anything about the nature of the conference," Reichler declared. He was asked "did something happen Thursday to account for this sudden calling of an impor-

Pro Cagers Get $15,500 Minimum

NEW YORK (AP) — The public never knows just how much the superstars like Wilt Chamberlain or Jerry West make, but it can be sure that when the National Basketball Association season opens next Tuesday each player will be making at least $15,500.

This minimum salary, the highest in a pro sport, was agreed on Thursday by the owners and the NBA Players Association.

The NBA minimum will be boosted to $17,500 with the start of the 1972-73 season under the agreement announced by Commissioner Walter Kennedy and Lawrence Fleisher, counsel for the players association. The pact also calls for a hike in the playoff pool and meal money.

The current minimum salary for the National Hockey League is $12,000. In the National Football League the minimum for a rookie is $12,000 while a player with at least one year's experience gets $13,000.

The minimum salary in the major baseball leagues for 1970 was $12,000. This will go to $12,750 next year and $13,500 in 1972.

Probable Pro Winners of Weekend

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Detroit, Los Angeles and Denver are the only unbeaten teams in the National Football League after three weeks of play and only the Broncos appear to be in danger this weekend.

The emotional high spot of the week should be the return of Paul Brown to Cleveland with his expansion Cincinnati Bengals. Although the Bengals knocked off the Browns in preseason 31-24, they may find things a bit different in regular season.

Last week's 8-5 record brought the season mark to 23-15-1 so let's try again, the last time around for the old hand-picker.

Saturday Night
Miami 23, New York Jets 21

—Jets are favored in home opener but came out of Buffalo game in bad shape with Matt Snell out for year and defense all shook up. Bob Griese-Paul Warfield combo could give Dolphins first win ever over Jets.

Sunday
Los Angeles 27, San Francisco 17—Rams are fired up to go all the way with Roman Gabriel running the show and Les Josephson back in harness. Look for 49ers to bounce back strong after tough loss in Atlanta.

Denver 23, Oakland 20—Although favored Raiders open at home without a win, still smarting from tongue lashing from Al Davis, a Denver team that could whip Kansas City should handle the desperate Raiders with another big defensive effort.

Detroit 30, Washington 14—Unless the Lions have trouble getting up for Redskins after tough Monday night game, they should be able to make it four in a row. That Lion defense will stop Larry Brown, forcing Sonny Jurgensen to take chances.

Minnesota 20, Chicago 13—Bears hung in tough against Detroit Monday night special while Vikings couldn't get offense moving against Green Bay. Gale Sayers still questionable. Gary Cuozzo may have to do it through the air with Dick Butkus roaming the range on the ground.

Houston 17, Baltimore 14—Another upset with Oilers squeaking home on superior defense. Loss of Tom Regner tough blow for Houston which will be playing at home. John Unitas will keep the ball in the air while Oilers try to punch it out on the ground.

Pittsburgh 17, Buffalo 14—Despite Bills' fine upset win over Jets on combo of Dennis Shaw's passing and O. J. Simpson's running, it is time for Terry Bradshaw to win one and this could be it. Give Steelers the nod in close one on home field edge.

Atlanta 21, Dallas 17—Either the upset bug has a big week or this picker goes down the drain. Cowboys still haven't rung the bell in this corner and Falcons proved they can handle a good ball club in win over 49ers.

Cleveland 27, Cincinnati 17—Browns ruin Paul Brown's return to Cleveland, especially if Bill Nelsen and Leroy Kelly can make it. Virgil Carter will get the call for the Bengals after last week's relief job against Houston.

St. Louis 17, New Orleans 7—Saints' attack anemic and Cards well-balanced offense is conservative. Cid Edwards and MacArthur Lane should grind it out while Jim Hart tosses an occasional pass.

Kansas City 24, Boston 10—Chiefs should be ready to tear somebody's head off after 1-2 record in first three starts. Although Len Dawson was on crutches in mid-week and Mike Livingston will start, they are long overdue for Super Bowl-type effort. If Joe Kapp gets into action for Pats, the Chiefs may think they're back in New Orleans. Loss of Jim Nance tough on Pats.

New York 17, Philadelphia 14—Some one of these days the giants are going to win one. Giants should have enough by the end of the half to last through the second half famine.

Monday Night
Green Bay 17, San Diego 14—Pack coming off upset of Minnesota and Chargers hope to bounce back after bombing by Rams. Bart Starr still hurting. Look for San Diego to try to throw the ball.

Five Honored at Meeting of Insurance Firm

National 500 Has Only 16 Spots Left

LOUISVILLE, N. C. (AP) — Five local insurance men were honored recently by being awarded a trip to their Home Office at Louisville, Kentucky. This group of insurance men form a Staff from a District Office at El Dorado, Arkansas. C. D. Cheatham is the Staff Manager, and his Sales Force consists of: G. W. White, LeRoy Mayfield, R. P. Tipton, & M. J. Harris. The Home Office trip was a result of their attaining the position of leading Staff of Lincoln Income Life Insurance Company for their record during the first 8 months of 1970.

The fact that they are the Number One Staff attests to their sales ability. Each man on this Staff of salesmen has averaged better than a quarter of a million dollars of Life Volume Increase during the first 8 months. Not only have these salesmen demonstrated their excellent competence in selling life insurance, but they also lead the Company's Fire Insurance sales, being the leading Staff in that department. Also while in Louisville, this Staff of salesmen and their wives were the honored guests of L. A. Olges, Vice President & Secretary of the Company at a dinner at the exclusive Executive Inn. The following day they were guests of honor at the Home Office for lunch with the President of the Company and of course, enjoyed a guided tour of the Home Office facilities.

Army Going Against Notre Dame

Army's wooden soldiers march into the Notre Dame disaster area Saturday with only a wingback and a prayer. Question: Do they stand and fight—or run?

Notre Dame is ranked third in the nation with impressive victories over three Big Ten teams. Army is out of sight with one victory in four, that over a Holy Cross team which spent a hiatus with hepatitis last season.

Notre Dame has more guns than Army can count... and the Cadets have fleet Bob Hines at one of the running spots. Top-ranked Ohio State plays Michigan State, No. 2. Texas plays its annual war with Oklahoma; fourth-ranked Southern Cal tackles No. 12 Stanford; Mississippi, the fifth-rated team, plays Georgia; sixth-ranked Nebraska hosts Missouri, No. 16; No. 7 Michigan plays Purdue; eighth-rated Air Force plays Tulane; No. 9 Auburn is at Clemson and No. 10 Arkansas plays Baylor at Little Rock among the Top Ten Saturday.

Other games include Duke at No. 11 West Virginia; 20th-ranked Tennessee at No. 13 Georgia Tech; No. 14 Arizona State at Washington State; Oregon at No. 15 UCLA; Iowa State at No. 17 Colorado; No. 18 North Carolina hosting South Carolina and Pacific at No. 19 LSU.

A turn-away crowd of more than 59,000 will be on hand for the Army-Notre Dame affair at South Bend to lend support to the Irish with screaming in stereo. It's one reason opposing teams don't like to play Notre Dame at home. The other is their formidable punishing defense, which shut off Northwestern 35-14; Purdue 48-0 and Michigan State 29-0.

Injury-troubled Army knocked off state Holy Cross 26-0 in the opener at West Point, then lost to Baylor 10-7, Nebraska and Tennessee 48-3.

Some handicappers give Notre Dame a 50-point edge.

Michigan State first had to handle Notre Dame's snappy Joe Theismann last week, and now take on another of colleges top quarterbacks—Ohio State's Rex Kern. The Buckeyes also throw a brace of fine backs into their offensive machine.

Texas and Oklahoma engage in their traditional rivalry that usually sets off more fireworks in the street than on the football field. Near-riots have resulted in the past. The Longhorns have the guns and the Sooners, the guts.

Quarterback Jimmy Jones guides the Trojans and Stanford has Jim Plunkett, who's looking for a better day than last Saturday when the Indians took a 28-14 shelling from Purdue.

Archie Manning, Mississippi's rambling, scrambling man, directs the Rebels' high-powered offense against Georgia's Bulldogs.

Missouri has beaten Nebraska the past three years and Cornhuskers' Coach Bob Devaney says: "It's been so long since we've beaten them that I can't remember it." The Tigers have won nine of the last 13 games.

Bolt Leads Senior Meet by 4 Strokes

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Tommy Bolt, who has led all the lay in the last two U.S. National Senior Open golf tournaments, entered today's second round of the 1970 event for over-50 golfers three strokes off the pace.

But the Sarasota, Fla., veteran wound up happy with his even par 71 Thursday in the $75,000, 72-hole tournament.

Former PGA champion Chandler Harper, 56, Portsmouth, Va., and club pro Hans Merrell, 53, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, shared a one-stroke lead with 3-under-par 68s.

Wants to Look Good for Minor Managers

By GEORGE STRODE Associated Press Sports Writer CINCINNATI (AP) — Sparky Anderson proudly believes he will be representing all minor league managers Saturday when he sends the Cincinnati Reds against the Baltimore Orioles in the World Series.

"I'd like to prove minor league managers just aren't jokes," he said. "I told my wife that's why I took the job. Anderson, at 36 the youngest major league pilot, guided the Reds to a club record 102 triumphs during the regular season and became the first rookie manager to win a National League flag in 24 seasons.

"I have a good feeling for the minors. When you spend that many years (14) in them, you have to have. I don't even have a major league pension yet," he said.

"I've been where the buses stop at those all-night hamburger joints," he said. "I like George Scherger's comment. My coach joked one day and said, 'Skip, the stakes are too thick up here.'"

Anderson played seven of his nine seasons in the minors and managed another five years at such places as Rock Hill, S.C.; St. Petersburg, Fla.; Asheville, N.C., and Modesto, Calif.

Anderson claims the Reds won the pennant because of his coaches, especially Larry Shepard.

"The other pitching coaches that were here couldn't win," he said of Shepard.

"How many guys would take (Wayne) Simpson, 7-13 the year before and use him? Or (Don) Gullett, a year out of high school? Why didn't the other coaches keep (Garry) Nolan on the mound for 250 innings?" Anderson said, reeling off meaningful questions.

"Skip, Alex Grammas or George Scherger could all manage a big league club," Anderson said. "Why aren't coaches heard of more?"

"Just because you have got manager above your door doesn't make you the Lord Almighty," he said.

Sparky believes in driving the players with hard work, especially in spring training.

"One coach told me we couldn't keep working the players that hard. I said we hadn't even put them in gear yet," Anderson said.

He said it would be an even tougher grind next spring. "We'll add 25 per cent to that in 1971. When you pocket that money (playoffs and Series), you get a little lazy," he said with a wink.

Hockey to Start Season at Vancouver

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The longest regular-season schedule in National Hockey League history starts tonight in Vancouver and will end 546 games later in April in Pittsburgh.

With the inclusion of the Vancouver Canucks and the Buffalo Sabres in the league this year, the number of teams increased to 14 from 12 last year.

Accordingly, the number of scheduled games increased to 546 this year, 90 more than in 1969-70.

And, apparently, league officials believed it fitting that one of the expansion teams share the spotlight in the season's opener.

Although the schedule was drawn up before regular preseason games ended, Vancouver probably couldn't have been a better choice to open the season.

With a 3-4-3 record in exhibition games, the Canucks power—surprising for an NHL rookie club—has drawn a lot of attention.

The Los Angeles Kings, who joined the league in its 1967-68 expansion, and who meet Canucks in this year's opener, had a 3-1-2 record in exhibition play.

The season moves into full swing this weekend. On Saturday, the New York Rangers meet the St. Louis Blues, the Oakland Seals take on the Detroit Red Wings, Buffalo visits the Pittsburgh Penguins and the Minnesota North Stars battle with the Philadelphia Flyers.

The Montreal Canadiens meet Philadelphia Sunday, the Toronto Maple Leafs visit Vancouver, Detroit tangles with the Bruins in Boston and the Chicago Black Hawks entertain Oakland.

This year, for the first time in three seasons, St. Louis is not favorite to win the league's great division.

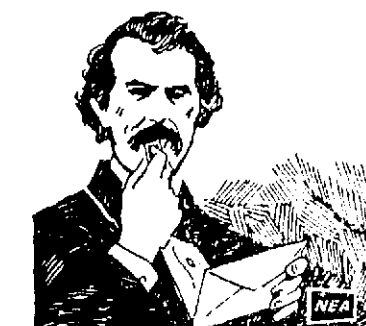

The Blues have won the division since the NHL expanded in 1967-68. All expansion teams, Philadelphia, Oakland, Pittsburgh, Minnesota, Los Angeles and St. Louis were placed in the new division with the other teams making up the East Division.

But with Buffalo and Vancouver coming into the East Division, Chicago was shifted to the West, making the Hawks favorites there. The Hawks finished first in the East last year.

Wounded Presidents

Although 21 U.S. presidents were in military service at some time in their lives, only three were wounded in battle. James Monroe was wounded in the Revolutionary War; Rutherford B. Hayes was wounded four times while serving in the Union Army; John F. Kennedy suffered an injury while serving in the Navy in World War II.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The first adhesive U.S. postage stamps went on sale July 1, 1847. The World Almanac recalls. The issue consisted of two stamps, a 5-cent Benjamin Franklin and a 10-cent George Washington. The stamps were authorized by act of Congress and were issued by the U.S. Post Office Department.

Money is still the basic problem public interest lawyers face. Top law graduates, who can command $18,000 starting salary at leading Wall Street firms, make anywhere from $4,000 to $9,000 in legal services programs.
"This is the main reason for the big turnover in public interest firms," said Beverly Moore, 25, who this fall will join Ralph Nader's newly organized firm, Public Interest Research Group —PIRG.
Many lawyers concede they will eventually enter private firms. OEO reports most legal service lawyers leave after three or four years.

SNUGGLING against town wall of a German village, this tiny former guard-house makes a cozy home for a family near Frankfurt. The cottage has survived centuries of weather and war.

Young Lawyers Are Seeing Need of Poor

By ANN BLACKMAN
Associated Press Writer
When he graduated from Harvard Law School seven years ago, Tony Roisman looked like a good bet to become a wealthy tax lawyer. Last year he earned $800. But Tony Roisman considers himself a successful man— as well as a happy one.

He and hundreds of other attorneys are part of the new breed of lawyers who want to apply their skills to what they feel are the sore spots of America, convinced the phrase "equal justice under law" is often less than that.

The new legal breed feels it's no longer relevant to find tax loopholes for large corporations, push rate increases for public utilities or help labor get bigger raises. Instead, the new lawyers want to see legal aid made available to the poor and middle-class citizens, as well as the rich.

Roisman, himself, gave up a lucrative job two years ago. "I decided what I was doing wasn't important—fun, sure — but it didn't matter to me if such and such a company got a tax ruling. I was doing the work, but I wasn't committed to it," said Roisman whose Washington firm, Berlin, Roisman and Kessler, is one of the few self-supporting public interest firms in the country. Roisman's wife, also a lawyer, works in Washington. His decision to forego private practice cut their income in half.

The majority of lawyers, however, still sell their skills to private law firms, attracted by influence, profits and prestige.

Many feel there isn't the challenge or the diversity in public interest law.

"I'd rather use my skills and crafts in the wrong way but to the fullest extent rather than squander them away with Band-Aid lawyers," said Jack Weiss, an editor of the 1970 Harvard Law Review.

But neighborhood legal aid offices, first funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity—OEO—in 1965, have been sprouting up all over the country. By last June, 1,950 legal aid lawyers worked out of 650 neighborhood law offices in 265 communities. "The appeal is idealism. They're not motivated by money," said John Adams, director of the OEO legal services program.

One OEO legal services lawyer is Daniel S. Press, 27, a 1968 Yale Law School graduate who works with the Navajo Indians in the red rock country of Window Rock, Ariz.

"It's exhausting work, but it's exhilarating when you know that if you don't do the work, no one else will either," said Press, who makes $9,000 a year.

Money is still the basic problem public interest lawyers face. Top law graduates, who can command $18,000 starting salary at leading Wall Street firms, make anywhere from $4,000 to $9,000 in legal services programs.

"This is the main reason for the big turnover in public interest firms," said Beverly Moore, 25, who this fall will join Ralph Nader's newly organized firm, Public Interest Research Group —PIRG.

Many lawyers concede they will eventually enter private firms. OEO reports most legal service lawyers leave after three or four years.

Time To MOVE UP

It's Promotion Time...Sunday School Commencement time. Every youngster longs for this time of year. They have done well and must be promoted. They are moving ahead, making progress in the teachings of God. In that there is delight. Perhaps Promotion time should be just as important to adults as to the young. Maybe we should check our progress in Christian living. If we had to earn our yearly promotion where would we be? Are we going to church more? Have we increased our giving? Do we help more in various church programs? Do our lives reflect deeper religious beliefs? Would my pastor O.K. my promotion? Would my family give me a card? How about my relatives, friends and business associates? It is Promotion time and can we meet the challenge? Can we truly say it is Time for us To Move Up.

Says Housing Ignored in Small Towns

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Country folks don't move to the big cities anymore to find bright lights and indoor plumbing, but because of the government's deliberate neglect of rural America, the Senate has been told.

Clay Cochran, chairman of the year-old National Rural Housing Coalition, said Wednesday the government still treats small towns and rural areas—home for 65 million Americans—as orphans in its aid program. The extent of the neglect and the damage already done is rarely recognized, he said.

Testifying before the Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, Cochran said the neglect of rural America stems from the myth that the height of civilization will be reached when 90 per cent of the population lives on one per cent of the land.

Recent publicity given pollution and the accompanying problems is helping puncture this myth, he said, but still little notice is taken of rural America's needs.

"The American people, including the Congress, must be made aware of the widespread need: that two-thirds of the bad housing is there (in rural America) and that bad water and lack of sanitation destroy the health and lives of people," he said.

Cochran proposed establishment of an emergency Rural Home Development Administration to help families or individuals otherwise ineligible for housing from Farmers Home Administration or public housing programs.

The proposed agency would provide minimum housing, sanitation and clean water, plus other community facilities such as day care centers, in any town of 25,000 population or smaller, he said.

"Let the existing institutions take stock and struggle to maintain their domain by doing more of the job they should long since have completed," he said.

The Nixon administration has yet to make concrete proposals for upgrading rural America although there have been signs in recent months that such proposals are under study.

Congress also has begun to move toward solving the problems of rural America. A part of the omnibus farm bill drafted by the Senate Agriculture Committee defines the problem and calls for progress reports by agencies starting Dec. 1.

President Nixon's Task Force on Rural Development warned earlier that "our growing industry and our increasing population must spread out instead of continuing to pile people and industrial plants into compacted urban areas" if the United States is to be a healthy and happy nation.

Proof Soviets Man Missiles in Egypt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A military spokesman in Tel Aviv said today that Israel has definite proof that Soviet crews are manning anti-aircraft missile sites on the Egyptian side of the Suez Canal.

"We have photographic and other evidence proving that Russians are manning SAM3 missiles at the canal," the spokesman said.

The spokesman refused to say what "other evidence" Israel possesses, but observers believe it may include radio traffic between Russians and Egyptians which the Israelis intercepted.

The Soviet government on Thursday denied its personnel were manning the missile batteries it has supplied Egypt. It countered with charges that Israel is making "almost daily" intrusions into Egyptian air space, that Israeli troops are "continuously building fortifications" along the east side of the Suez Canal, and that Israel and the United States are stalling Middle East peace talks.

The statement coincided with Israel's 22nd complaint that Egypt is violating the Middle East cease-fire by deploying Soviet missiles in the standstill zone along the canal.

In Beirut, the right-wing newspaper Al Hayat reported that President Gamal Abdel Nasser had issued orders a week before he died for the withdrawal of the missiles. The paper said as soon as Nasser died, a group of junior army officers apparently prevailed on Gen. Mohammed Fawzi, the Egyptian commander in chief, to reverse the order.

Loyalty Oath Ordered Crossed Off of All Civil Service Forms

By STAN BENJAMIN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission today ordered federal agencies to cross off the loyalty oath which still appears on a form each new federal employee must sign.

In 1969, the Supreme Court ruled the requirement of a loyalty oath for federal employment was unconstitutional, but the government has not replaced the forms.

The Civil Service said today printing and distribution of a revised form, omitting the loyalty oath, will be completed within three months.

Since the court decision, government job recruits have been told they could delete the loyalty clause from the form before they sign it; now, it will be deleted in advance.

Also to be removed is a section which pledged the federal job applicant not to "assert the right to strike against the government" or to belong to any government employees' organization asserting that right.

That deletion, too, results from a Supreme Court decision. The federal employee still must pledge, however, not to actually participate in a strike against the government.

Known as Standard Form 61, the "appointment affidavit" formerly consisted of four parts: An oath of office; the loyalty oath officially titled "affidavit as to subversive activity and affiliation"; the no-strike clause; and a statement that the applicant, in effect, didn't bribe anybody to get the job.

Here is the text of the "loyalty oath" being deleted as unconstitutional:

stitutional:

"I am not a Communist nor Fascist. I do not advocate nor am I knowingly a member of any organization that advocates the overthrow of the constitutional form of the government of the United States or which seeks by force or violence to deny other persons their rights under the Constitution of the United States. I do further swear or affirm that I will not so advocate nor will I knowingly become a member of such organization during the period that I am an employee of the federal government or any agency thereof."

State Lashed by Rain, High Winds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Tornadoes, thunderstorms, high winds and rains swept across Arkansas Thursday night, but caused only minor damage in most places and few injuries.

Gentry was hardest hit, but tornadic winds or tornado damage were reported at Texarkana, Jacksonville, McCrory, DeWitt and Norman.

Four minor injuries were reported at Gentry, where a tornado grazed the eastern edge of the town, knocking over three mobile homes and tearing the roof from a motel.

Bombings Blamed on Radicals

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Police in three West Coast cities said today they had few leads to the bomb blasts that ripped two military facilities and a county courthouse, but indicated they were proceeding on the assumption it was a radical conspiracy.

The predawn explosions Thursday damaged a courtroom and rest room of the Marin County Civic Center in San Rafael, Calif., shattered a section of an outside wall at an Army National Guard armory in Santa Barbara, Calif., and caused an estimated $150,000 damage to a building housing the Navy and Air Force ROTC departments at the University of Washington in Seattle.

A bomb was found in the heating duct of a building at the University of California at Berkeley and was disarmed.

Some 820 men and women students in robes and slippers were evacuated early today from a coed dormitory at UCLA when an anonymous caller telephoned a bomb threat. No bomb was found.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, speaking in San Francisco, attributed the bombings to "psychopaths." He said he believes a nationwide conspiracy exists among some radicals to destroy American institutions.

Dissenters Find That the Hand That Bites Them Feeds Them Too

EDITOR'S NOTE—Their books are best sellers; they are in demand as speakers. Which translates into money. And money is just what many leaders of antieestablishment movements find in their role as dissenters from American society. Following is a report on this phenomenon by the AP Living Today department.

By LYNN SHERR Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Leaders of the nation's various antieestablishment groups are finding that the hand they are biting is feeding them, too.

Through best-selling books, high-priced lecture appearances and other by products of their rebellion, the top names of such organizations as the Yippies, Women's Liberation and the Black Panthers are grossing profits which have mounted into the tens of thousands.

They say, however, the big money is not lining their pockets. Instead it is going into the coffers of the various branches of The Movement.

"It's not my role to be rich. It's happened accidentally," says Yippie leader Jerry Rubin, whose best-selling book "Do It!" has sold more than 200,000 copies at $2.45. Based on standard author's royalties, he can

Benefit for House Fire Victims

The Lena Dennis family lost all their furniture, household goods, and clothing when fire destroyed their home on October 3rd. Lena and her sisters are well known and highly respected for the fine domestic work they have done for a number of local families.

A group of their friends will conduct a radiothon on KXAR Saturday, October 17th, at 1:00 p.m. to help them secure household furnishings to re-establish their home. You are urged to check your home to see if you can spare furniture, kitchen utensils and clothing.

The list of needed items will be read on the air. Persons who have kitchen and table utensils they can give now are urged to leave them at Brunner Products on South Walnut, directly in back of the First Baptist Church. On the radiothon trucks will be available to pick up all offered items.

Agnew Links Democrats to Panthers

By EDMOND LeBRETON Associated Press Writer

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, on a Southern and Border state campaign swing, has charged that some Northern and Western Democrats are friendly to the Black Panthers—or at least to their friends.

In a speech to an applauding audience of Arkansas Republicans Thursday night, Agnew described Ronald Dellums, a black Democratic candidate for Congress in California's Berkeley-Oakland district, as "an enthusiastic backer and supporter of the Black Panther party ... a man who happily shares platforms with Black Panthers ... a man who says, 'My politics are to bring the walls down'."

And, Agnew said, such Democrats

Senate Cracks Down on Terror Bombings, Aids Law Officers More

By JOHN CHADWICK Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — In a burst of anticrime activity, the Senate has passed legislation providing heavier penalties for terror bombings, increased protection for the president and members of Congress, and more federal aid for state and local police.

What started off as a batch of separate bills and ended up in one big legislative package also includes extra jail sentences for federal crimes carried out with a gun and special presidential awards for valorous conduct by law enforcement officers.

The vote on final passage Thursday, after eight hours of debate, was 59 to 0—the low count indicating only that a lot of senators are out campaigning for re-election in a year when also were damaged heavily. Electrical service and telephone

Auto Pollution Deadline Set Jan. 1, 1975

By MIKE SHANAHAN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disregarding auto industry pleas that it can't be done, a House-Senate conference committee has set Jan. 1, 1975, as the deadline for eliminating harmful exhaust from new cars.

The date agreed upon by the conferees Thursday is part of a tough new air pollution bill which its chief sponsor, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, says still requires some work before a final measure is agreed to.

But Muskie called the 1975 target date the bill's most controversial element. The deadline prompted the chiefs of the big three major auto makers to descend on Capitol Hill in an unprecedented personal lobbying effort two months ago.

General Motors President Edward N. Cole spoke out publicly, saying the goal, "As far as we know now, simply is not technologically possible within the time frame required."

Specifically, the bill requires that 1975 model cars have a 90 per cent reduction in exhaust pollutants from 1970 levels. It provides authority to close production lines, raising the specter of the end of the internal combustion engine.

Bid to Cut War Funds Is Rejected

By JIM ADAMS Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Refusing again to restrict President Nixon's handling of the Vietnam war, the House has rejected attempts to clamp a $15 billion spending ceiling for the conflict and force withdrawal of all U.S. troops by the end of June.

The House defeated all efforts to cut a total $3.5 billion before approving a $66.8 billion defense appropriation 274 to 31 Thursday night and sending it to the Senate.

It added $150 million at the request of Secretary Melvin R. Laird to pay off a variety of operations including increased 6th Fleet readiness in the Mediterranean during the Middle East crisis.

Short debate on three Vietnam war amendments came near the end of an eight-hour defense-bill session and was punctuated with impatient shouts of "vote! vote!" on the House floor before all three were defeated.

Over the last several months, the House has constantly refused to go along with any moves to limit U.S. policy in Vietnam.

Opposing President Nixon's policy of gradual troop withdrawals, Rep. Donald M. Nasser, D-Minn., introduced an amendment to force "safe and orderly withdrawal" by June 29 by cutting off funds then.

His amendment, similar to the amendment defeated by the Senate last month, was rejected by the House 65 to 23. Two amendments by Rep. Donald W. Riegle Jr., R-Mich., to put a $15 billion ceiling on the war and force withdrawal of U.S. ground combat troops by June 2—which he said would "lock in" the President's present plans—were quickly defeated with voice votes.

A manslaughter charge grew out of the death of Tackett's daughter, but Arnold dismissed the case. The judge said the prosecuting attorney reported insufficient evidence to prosecute.

Boyd Tackett Jailed by Judge Arnold

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) —

Former congressman Boyd Tackett, 59, of Texarkana, was freed on $1,000 bond late Thursday after being sentenced to three months in jail for contempt of court.

Tackett, an attorney, was sentenced by Circuit Judge W. H. Arnold III, 46, also of Texarkana, who said his life had been threatened by Tackett.

The attorney was sentenced after being summoned to a morning hearing. Tackett was given only 45 minutes notice. The sentence was three months and $250 fine on each of the four counts.

Arnold, who said his health had been affected by harassment by Tackett, said he would enter a hospital as soon as a bed became available.

He said Tackett was given only short notice of the hearing to avoid the possibility of "physical insult and injury during the interim" between the summons and the hearing itself.

Tackett was released after the state Supreme Court set bond and agreed to hear an appeal of the sentence.

Nicholas H. Patton, law partner of Tackett, had asked the high court late Thursday to set bond and to hear an appeal of Tackett's sentence.

Patton said Tackett had been under strain because of the death of his daughter, Jonie J. Tackett, 19, in an automobile accident at Hope a year ago.

Tackett was released after Patton pledged that Tackett would commit no violent activity and would not leave the jurisdiction of the court.

In 1969, Tackett was sentenced by Arnold to six months in jail for contempt of court. After spending more than 24 hours in jail, Tackett was released because of an apology and a promise that his behavior would improve, according to the record filed in the Supreme Court.

Arnold, who is serving his fourth term, did not seek re-election this year.

Tackett, a former prosecuting attorney, served two terms in Congress and ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1952.

In his order, Arnold listed incidents leading to the charges. The list included an occasion where, according to the order, Tackett made attempts to bring about a fight between himself and the judge. The order said Tackett became excited and screamed repeatedly that he would kill Arnold.

A manslaughter charge grew out of the death of Tackett's daughter, but Arnold dismissed the case. The judge said the prosecuting attorney reported insufficient evidence to prosecute.
